FOREWORD

THE Year Book of the Evangelical and Reformed Church is a new publication,—a new venture, with a new name. It is a continuation of the most helpful and useful features of some former publications, with the addition of much new material.

The Year Book replaces the Year Book and Almanac issued by the Evangelical and Reformed Church during the last ten years. It includes nearly all of the material published in recent years in the book of Statistical Tables of the Congregations of the entire Church. It contains the synodical Rosters, formerly printed in the Blue Book for the Synods. It provides more complete directories, and makes available in one volume information and facts regarding the denomination, the Synods, the congregations and our educational and benevolent institutions.

The publication of this Year Book has been under consideration by the General Synod and the General Council for three years. The necessity for it was evident, but for a time there were obstacles which prevented carrying out the project. With the coming of Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner into the office of the Secretary to serve the Church as Statistician as well as to help with the other work, including the editing of the Year Book, the way was opened. The General Council appointed a Committee to develop the plans, and the Board of Business Management became the publisher. The General Synod authorized an edition of 25,000 copies for 1945, and the finished product is herewith presented to the Church with the hope and prayer that it may accomplish its one purpose, viz., to tell our constituency what our Church is, what it is doing, and what its program is for the coming year.

We are one of the larger Protestant Churches of the United States. We have nearly three thousand congregations, with 675,958 communicant members, in more than thirty states of this country and several provinces of Canada. We have several hundred thousand baptized but unconfirmed members, making a total membership of nearly one million. Our heritage, tracing back to the Protestant Reformation, is one of which we can justly be proud. Our study of this book and constant reference to it should make us more loyal members of the Church, more faithful in attendance upon its services, more eager to advance its work and more ready to cooperate with Christians everywhere in building the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

WILLIAM E. LAMPE,
Secretary.

S	7	John 14:1-14	At this particular time, when much missionary work in other lands must be curtailed or carried on under great difficulty, there are some who feel that the Church should withdraw from those fields. But there was never a time when the gospel of Jesus Christ was more needed than today. Only as we refuse to abandon the work given us by our Master, will we earn the title, "good and faithful servant." This is a day in which to intensify our work.

S	14	Rom. 7:14-25	Every individual church member has a responsibility with regard to the missionary enterprise of our denomination. The gifts we give to this cause represent our own reaching out, through the efforts of our missionaries, to help bring the Light to those who are in darkness. With the world becoming, increasingly, one big neighborhood, our individual responsibility for helping to "preach the gospel to every creature" becomes more and more imperative.

Since money really represents the time and energy used in earning it, it is therefore a part of life. As we, moved by the love of Christ, give of our means with a cheerful heart, the Church is enabled to show love and care toward many persons whom the individual could not reach.

9] Oculi (Third Sunday in Lent)				Luke 11:14-28 Eph. 5:1-9	Jesus Casting Out the Demon
S	4		Psalm 22:1-32	The Lenten season has always been regarded as a time for special emphasis to be placed on evangelism. It is during this period of the Church Year that the most intensive efforts are put forth to win new followers to Christ's way of life. Every Christian ought to be an evangelist—not only during the days of Lent, but throughout the whole year. We should never hesitate to bear witness to the saving grace of our Lord.

S	11		Heb. 5:4-10	How may we discover those who are not affiliated with the congregation of which we are members? A number of ways suggest themselves. We can look for them among our friends and acquaintances; we can learn from our church's records the names of those who were once members and investigate their non-attendance; we can help to make a house-to-house religious canvass of our community in cooperation with other churches.

11] Judica (Passion Sunday)				John 8:46-59 Heb. 9:11-15	The Sinlessness of Jesus
S	18		Heb. 9:11-17	After we have found the unchurched, how are we to bring them into a vital relationship with Christ? Again, several ways are possible. We can invite them to attend our services of worship, even calling for them if necessary; we can introduce them to our pastor; we can make them our friends and let our own light so shine that they will follow it; we can help enroll young people in the confirmation class of our Church.

12] Palm Sunday (Sixth Sunday in Lent)				Matt. 21:1-9 Phil. 2:5-11	Jesus Enters Jerusalem
S	25		Heb. 10:11-23	Not only evangelism, but also self-denial is a part of the Lenten emphasis. Self-denial is a spiritual discipline by which we refuse to indulge in worldliness in order that we may learn to live sacrificially. Self-denial does not subtract from life; on HOLY THURSDAY the contrary, it adds to it .

S	1	1 Cor. 15:1-11	Responsible decisions must be made during these days, by men and nations. The whole fate of a people may depend upon the judgment of a few men, and if this judgment is in error, the consequences will be disastrous. So, too, the decisions made by each individual in his own life profoundly affect that life. It is for this reason that the Church is ever concerned with the inner life of her people, for there the decisions are made.

S	8	1 Cor. 15:12-34	"Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom," sang the Psalmist long ago. This aspiration is a noble one, and can be attained by obedience to the will of God and the laws of life which He has ordained. Faith is triumphant when it transforms life from imperfection to perfection, from feebleness to strength, from sinfulness to righteousness, from selfishness to brotherly love.

S	15	2 Cor. 5:10-21	Essentially, the kind of inner life that will make wise decisions is developed by personal communion with God. One of the most important functions of the soul, therefore, is worship and meditation. Through worship we can "practice the presence of God"; and in communion with Him we find new joy and inspiring power. Such worship is the result, not of mere formalism, but of deep devotion, complete concentration, and spiritual striving.

We need the assurance that we have a Friend, outside of ourselves, who can and will help us in times of stress and strain. But the only way we can have this assurance is by a venture of faith. That venture, once undertaken, will reveal the love of God for us, and with that knowledge we are "more than conquerors."

Dives and Lazarus

S	3	Psalm 136	Christian young people need and want nothing quite so much as adults who will help them to understand life and to make the most of it. For adults, this means a serious attempt to see and understand the problems of youth, and a sympathetic desire to aid in their solution. It means seeking out young people and helping to place them in the way of service; it means lending encouragement to their efforts, and helping to train them.

S	10	Psalm 91:1-16	"The appeal of religion is not foreign to youth. This has been proved by youth's response in every age, including our own. The difference between a Church which is blessed with large numbers of youth as active participants in its work and one which has lost its young people must therefore be one of approach and method on the part of those who bear the responsibility for youth leadership," writes Dr. Vieth in the introduction to "Youth Work in the Church."

S	17	Acts 27:1-17	Careful planning on the part of leaders of the Church is essential if young people are to be led into lives of devotion and service. In fact, youth should be represented in the meetings held to formulate church-wide programs. Men's and women's organizations, the Sunday Church School, and kindred groups ought to take the needs of young people into consideration when they plan their work, invite their participation, and counsel with them.

S	24	Psalm 34:1-23	With many young people away from home, either serving their country, attending college or working, the Church has the added problem of keeping in touch with them. Very often this falls upon the shoulders of the busy pastor—and he will want to keep himself ready to help those who write to him for advice. But individual members of the congregation and church organizations can well assist the pastor by keeping in touch with those who are away from home, sending them word of the activities and work of the congregation.

S	16	Psalms 7:1-18	After ordination, the young minister begins his work as a service of love. Often he will be called upon to make sacrifices; he will expend his strength and energies without thought of reward. The support which is given him by the people he serves cannot be called "salary," for many of the most important services he renders could never be paid for in money. Individual congregations determine the amount of this support, and often it is insufficient.

48] 1st Sunday in Advent			Matt. 21:1-9 Rom. 13:8-14 "Thy King Cometh"
S	2	Mal. 3:1-6	During this month we shall celebrate God's giving of Jesus to the world. It is a good time to think about the barriers of race and class and nation and creed, and about ways in which, in the spirit of Jesus, we can break down these barriers and build new bridges of brotherhood among men. As our hearts are filled with the spirit of sharing, let us think not only of material things, but let us also determine to share with all men the highest ideals we know.

S	9	Dan. 2:26-35	It is a strange paradox, but true, that we have only what we share with others. James Russell Lowell was right, as he wrote: "The gift without the giver is bare; Who gives himself with his alms feeds three,— Himself, his hungering neighbor, and Me." The poor, the widows, the orphans, prisoners and captives, the hungry and the cold look to us to help them in Jesus' name.

50] 3rd Sunday in Advent			Matt. 11:2-10 1 Cor. 4:1-5 John in Prison
S	16	Heb. 2:10-18	We cannot give money, or goods, in the spirit of Christian sharing, unless we give friendship and brotherhood, too! We cannot share high principles, unless we, ourselves, are devoted to the same ideals. We might well examine ourselves! Do we send gifts to our Church's orphanages at this season in an impersonal manner, or are they accompanied by the warmth of our hearts and the sympathetic understanding of our love? Test sharing that way!

T	25	John 1:1-14	After Christmas, spend some time checking your progress in stewardship during the past year. Have you given freely, cheerfully, of your means, your time, your talents, to Christian service? Have you really accepted God's sovereignty over your life, and dedicated your all to Him? If not, what about next year?

AFTER TEN YEARS

A Message from the President of the Church

ON June 26, 1934, in Zion Church, Cleveland, Ohio, the Evangelical and Reformed Church came into being through the union of the Reformed Church in the United States and the Evangelical Synod of North America. While culturally and theologically related, these two denominations had until that time known only that measure of practical fellowship and cooperation which is provided for all major Protestant bodies through their common membership in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Now they joined hands and hearts in an organic union so that as a united church they might be enabled to accept a larger challenge and render a more effective service. Conversations and official negotiations which preceded this historic event had convinced both communions that the most effective way to union was to be found in the recognition of a common loyalty to Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and a common devotion to his commission to "make disciples of all nations." The discovery that the two Churches had been at all times in effect one in heart and mind led to the conviction that, being one in faith, we ought to be one in life and work. This conviction found its consummation at the first united General Synod in 1934.

The ten years which have elapsed since that historic event need properly be divided into two eras. The first and perhaps, unfortunately, the longest may well be characterized as the time of reorganization and coordination of the polities and the programs of the uniting Churches. Above all, a Constitution needed to be written. This task was committed to a special committee by the General Synod of Cleveland. As, after ten years, we look back upon the service rendered by this committee we find our admiration for the devotion of its members to the task and the statesmanlike grasp of the problems confronting them constantly increasing. This committee accomplished more than the writing of an instrument which represents a compromise between two in general similar and yet in many particulars quite divergent traditions. The best of these traditions were conserved in the Constitution and By-Laws, but the committee refused to bind us to customs and usages of the past which were admittedly non-essential. As finally approved by the Synods and declared in effect by the General Synod of 1940, the basic law of our Church is not a compromise, but rather a document born out of the very spirit which actuated the Churches themselves when they effected the union.

More important perhaps for the life of the Church than the writing of a Constitution and By-Laws, on the basis of which the administrative functions of the new Church might proceed in an orderly manner, was the preparation of a new Book of Worship and of a new Hymnal. Through the use of a common liturgy, the singing of the same hymns, the lifting up of the hearts of our people to the throne of grace by offering up the same prayers as they are assembled in worship, the union of our Church alone could become a matter of life and not merely of formal agreement. The service rendered by the committees entrusted with the task of editing these important aids to worship has, therefore, been of primary importance to the consummation of our union. The Church is agreed that both committees have performed a notable task and both books have been received with much favor.

The first years of our union also found the Church confronted with the task of reorganizing and correlating the functions of the various boards and agencies of the uniting Churches. At times seemingly insurmountable difficulties confronted the men and women who served on the administrative boards of the Church. Their task called for much wisdom and patience and a sincere desire to discover methods of procedure through which the best interests of the Church might be served. This could be accomplished only by setting their faces definitely to the future. It required, therefore, a willingness to forego usages and practices to which each group had become accustomed, and to adjust the program of the new boards and agencies to the needs of the present. Only those who were present at these negotiations know how difficult the problems which arose appeared to be. They also know with what determination to find a satisfactory and happy solution the responsible leaders of each agency applied themselves to the task entrusted to them.

The adoption of the new Constitution and By-Laws was quite immediately followed by the reorganization of the former Classes and Districts into thirty-four Synods. However, the process of reorganization was not complete until the denominational agencies through which the women and the men of the Church made their special contribution to the world-wide program of Christian service, that is, the Women's Guild and the Churchmen's Brotherhood, had completed their organization. Since that day both of these auxiliary agencies have functioned in the most effective manner.

Not until the meeting of the General Synod in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1942, was the united Church able to give its undivided attention to the formulation and the promotion of its on-going program of Kingdom Service. It would not, however, be correct to infer that, though of necessity the period of reorganization consumed much of the time and the energy of all those charged with administrative responsibilities, the Church in the interim marked time. However, as the Church now found itself in a position for a more energetic prosecution of its program, it established under the immediate supervision of the General Council and its Committee on Correlation and Promotion a Department of United Promotion. Without hesitation we assert that this has resulted in a more thoroughly informed constituency of all of our churches. Every Synod and every congregation is constantly being encouraged and challenged to accept full responsibility for the whole united program of the denomination. With much satisfaction we record that, generally speaking, the response on the part of our membership has been most encouraging. Throughout the Church we recognize an increased interest and a correspondingly new awareness of stewardship responsibility. Toward this end a special Committee on Stewardship has throughout the ten years made a very notable contribution.

Then came the time when our nation was forced into war. At the very beginning of the conflict in Europe our Church recognized its obligation to enter into new areas of service. At the General Synod of Lancaster, 1940, the Commission on War Emergency Relief was authorized and entrusted with the task of gathering and dispensing monies at home and abroad. As the war progressed, it was necessary to enlarge our program of service. To the above Commission were added the Committee on Army and Navy Chaplains, the Christian Committee for Camp Communities, The Bureau for Men in Service, with a full time Director; and the Commission on Christian Social Action was especially entrusted with the care of those of our young people who for conscience sake found themselves unable to participate in the war effort. At its last meeting in York, Pa., 1944, the General Synod voted in favor of a unification of the entire world service program, as it relates itself both to the war and to the post-war situation. A large commission which is to function through a number of committees, responsible to it, will now inaugurate and supervise the service the Church is permitted to render to a suffering world. The General Synod authorized this commission to challenge the churches to raise a minimum of $400,000 annually for the next triennium; a total, therefore, of $1,200,000 for the undergirding of this work. Like the disciples, we are constrained to ask: "What is that among so many?" We pray, however, that the Lord may bless these gifts, and that they may serve the purpose to which we dedicate them. Great as the need for service has been thus far the Church is aware that the post-war era will make new demands on our time and our benevolence. We have a responsibility to the victims of the war, both at home and abroad. The latter group includes immediately the countries of our allies, and in the near future liberated peoples, and eventually those whom we now call our enemies. At home it must include a well planned program of service for the young men and women now in the armed forces, and who, we pray, will soon return to civilian life, as well as the placing of pastors now employed as chaplains in adequate charges. This Commission will moreover need to be prepared to guide and to direct the thinking of the members of our Church with regard to the many social, as well as national and international political, problems which will confront us in that era.

Those who were in attendance upon the General Synod in York during the past summer are agreed that the united Church is determined to face the present and the future in the spirit of a living faith and a sincere dedication to the manifold tasks which confront us. The General Synod most heartily and seriously faced the need of a more enthusiastic and evangelistic effort on the part of every congregation, and, indeed, the whole membership of the Church. Our own membership must experience a revitalization of its spiritual life and a deepening of its consecration to the cause of Christ's Church. Equally present is the responsibility which is ours to reach out toward the indifferent and those who are hostile to the gospel. We would win them for Christ in order that they may know the fullness of life which is found only in Him. Upon lives transformed by His grace depends the hope of the discovery of a more satisfying, that is, a more just and righteous way of life for America and the whole world. The Crusade for Christ inaugurated during 1943 has borne blessed fruit. So that this program may be put forward with more energy, the Commission on Evangelism has been authorized to appoint an executive secretary on full time. The successful furtherance of this primary task of the Church will, however, depend upon the cooperation of our entire constituency.

As the General Synod faced the above responsibility it remembered the words of the Christ: "The harvest, indeed, is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth laborers unto His harvest." This the Church is determined to do. It will do more. It proposes to challenge the best among its young men and women to dedicate themselves to full time service in the Christian ministry, social service, Christian education, parish visitation, and above all, as missionaries, both at home and abroad.

This same General Synod was of one mind in the conviction that if our Church is to perform its task well, it will need to put a new and greater emphasis on Christian education. It therefore took measures looking toward the enrichment of the service of the Board of Christian Education and Publication. It challenged the congregations to concern themselves with the strengthening of the work of the Church schools. Moreover, it provided for a more adequate support of our colleges, academies and seminaries.

So that all this and much more might be successfully carried forward, the General Synod challenged the congregations of the entire Church to accept an increased budget apportionment. The denomination cannot go forward unless it has the whole-hearted cooperation of congregations and individual members. We have great faith that our people now more than ever before are convinced that the hope of the world lies with the Christian message and the service which the Church and the Church alone can render. On the basis of this conviction our people will, through their prayers and their labors, and also through financial support, claim a share in bringing the gospel of hope to a world which without it can only go its way in the night of despair.

Thus have we for ten years lived and worked as a united Church. Thus would we put our hands to the task which is ours today and in the immediate future. In York we thanked God for His guidance and blessing which have been ours during these ten years now belonging to history. As we contemplate the responsibilities which await us we pray that His grace may abide with us in an ever richer measure and we thank Him for the faith which gives us the assurance that when we are weak then are we strong, for His mercy will not fail us. After ten years we are convinced that God's spirit has led us into the union effected in 1934. To Him we give praise and glory for the service we have been permitted to render. For the future we ask only that He give us grace to be found faithful in the performance of our common tasks.

LIFE SERVICE ENLISTMENT

"Statistics reveal that more than 200 congregations of our communion are at a given time either temporarily or quite permanently vacant. There exists, therefore, a shortage of at least 200 active ministers or pastors. This condition naturally means that we have a goodly number of congregations which are making no progress. Some are slowly dying."

These pungent sentences lifted from President Goebel's report to the General Synod at York, Pa., bring the Church face to face with a stark reality. The death of one minister every week, on the average, the vacant pulpits, interruptions in the normal order due to war conditions,—all of these circumstances amply justify the appointment by the General Council of a special Committee on Life Enlistment. This Committee has been active for more than a year, and has attained good results. President Goebel's request and challenge to all pastors to furnish him with the names of young men and women to whom the claims for Christian life service could be presented not only met with a hearty response, but also served to jolt many of our leaders out of a dangerous self-complacency. Elmhurst College is inaugurating a course for the training of young women as parish workers and teachers of religion. Other colleges should do likewise. Our summer camps and Training Schools will do well to make this a major concern. The entire Church should rally to the cause of Christian life-service enlistment as never before.

A GREAT GENERAL SYNOD

THESE words, "a great General Synod," were heard on every hand during the meeting of our General Synod in Trinity First Church, York, Pennsylvania, throughout the week of June 21st to 28th, 1944.

Never before has the attendance been so large. Besides the five Officers of the Church and the 304 elected delegates, who constituted the voting membership, 27 delegates at large—the presidents and secretaries of the Boards and agencies of the Church, the presidents of our theological seminaries and the editors of our Church papers—were present as non-voting members. In addition, more than one hundred men and women who had business with the General Synod attended some or all of the sessions. Many pastors from nearby cities and states and a number of our York members were present as visitors.

The spacious auditorium of the host church was usually filled to its capacity for the business sessions and special services held there, but all attendances were climaxed on Sunday evening, when more than 7,000 people attended the very worshipful Spiritual Convocation at the Fair Grounds.

This was in every sense a meeting of the Church. The opening service, with the sermon by the President and the celebration of the Lord's Supper, made all feel that they were in fellowship with the crucified and risen Lord, the Head of the Church. In addition to the worship period at the beginning of every day, each morning session was closed with a twenty-minute devotional service conducted by Dr. H. Richard Niebuhr. Forty delegates preached in churches of our own and other denominations in York and vicinity on Sunday morning. The Spiritual Convocation made us conscious that ours is a world conquering gospel. This was indeed a service of rededication.

DR. JOHN W. MUELLER

There was intense activity throughout the week. In addition to the regular business sessions of the General Synod many committee meetings and special conferences were held. A keen interest in the proceedings was manifested by both laymen and clergy.

This was a precedent-breaking General Synod. For the first time a layman was elected Moderator. Under the able guidance of John W. Mueller, St. Louis attorney and active member of the General Council, there was full and free discussion of every topic, yet business was conducted with dispatch. On Monday afternoon there was another innovation—an address from the floor by a woman delegate, Mrs. C. E. Sitler of Michigan-Indiana Synod.

Though convened to deal with present-day urgencies and future contingencies, the General Synod was mindful of the past. Our Evangelical and Reformed Church came into being on June 26, 1934. At a special service in celebration of the tenth anniversary of this event Dr. George W. Richards, first President of the united Church, preached on the theme "Christian Unity and Church Union."

There were many evidences that we are functioning more and more as an integrated and progressive Church. The reports of our growth and giving were quite encouraging. We had a net gain of more than ten thousand members during the year 1943, making our present membership 675,958. The one item that gives us concern is a loss of more than twenty thousand in our Church School enrollment. There has been a very substantial increase in our giving, the total offerings in 1943 having been more than two millions of dollars for benevolences and nearly ten million dollars for congregational expenses. The indebtedness on our church buildings and parsonages has been reduced to about six million dollars. Last year these debts were decreased by two million dollars. In a few years more every congregation should be clear of debt.

Our organization and our efficiency as an organization have been carefully studied in the last few years. A number of amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws were offered and many of them were adopted, some in modified form. Because of a change in the basis of representation, the number of synodical delegates to the General Synod this year was fifty per cent greater than two years ago. Thus a far greater number of our members enjoyed the fellowship of groups from other Synods and with them faced the common tasks of our Church. They are now informing their Synods and actively leading them in the whole denominational program. The Church feels that less frequent meetings of the General Synod are necessary. The General Synod therefore voted practically unanimously that in the future it shall meet once in three years. It also extended all terms of office to conform with the new arrangement.

Our Church is waging an aggressive Crusade for Christ, to the end that every congregation win as many new members in 1944 as it has men and women in the armed services. Our members, old and new, must be trained and equipped to carry on the work of the Church. Men and women who will give their lives for full-time Christian service are greatly needed. Our Life Enlistment program, therefore, will be pressed for some years to come.

Our Boards and agencies are facing their tasks courageously. They are being urged to undertake additional tasks that they may better meet changed conditions today and new conditions at home and abroad in the near future. The General Synod felt the need of an increased Budget to meet the requirements of our expanding program and recognized the advisability of establishing a Reserve Fund against possible post-war emergencies. It also merged the Administration Fund with the Benevolent Budget. The annual Budget adopted for all causes and purposes is a little less than two million dollars. For our two-thirds of a million people this represents less than a cent a member a day for the entire work of the Church outside the local congregations. Our colleges, academies and theological seminaries were voted larger help through an increase in the amounts allotted to them in the Budget.

The Church is keenly aware of its responsibilities and opportunities during this time of world conflict and upheaval. Every report submitted to the General Synod by the Officers of the Church, the General Council, the Boards and agencies, and the committees reflected present-day conditions. Eighty-five of our ministers are chaplains in the Army and Navy. One out of every five of our male membership, and a number of our young women, are in the services of our country. Many of our people are employed in defense industries. Our congregations are loyally upholding all of these and are playing a worthy part in the world Fellowship of Compassion. It was very natural, therefore, that an entire evening session should be devoted to the work of our chaplains, Bureau for Men in Service, Christian Committee on Camp Communities and War Emergency Relief Commission. Several speakers were heard, including Col. George W. Rixey, Deputy Chief of Chaplains of the United States Army, who was the guest of the General Synod at this meeting. The Church is deeply concerned with this part of its program.

Recognizing that greater efficiency would be secured by merging many of these activities, the General Synod established a World Service Commission to supervise and correlate the work now carried on by the Bureau for Men in Service, the Christian Committee on Camp Communities, the War Emergency Relief Commission and the Post-War Committee. From the time the General Synod adjourned at Lancaster in June, 1940, until this meeting in York, our Church contributed a little more than a half-million dollars to War Emergency Relief. The General Synod voted to accept our share in the ministry of reconciliation by raising $1,200,000 in the current triennium "to bind up the wounds, to rebuild the waste places and to rekindle faith and hope and love in the hearts of men."

To help carry out its large, forward-looking program, the General Synod voted to provide for full-time Secretaries of Evangelism and Christian Social Action, an Eastern Field Secretary of United Promotion, and the necessary staff for the new Commission on World Service.

EDWARD DIRKS

During these years of crisis our members have been coping with local conditions and helping solve world problems in a way that is worthy of the Christian Church. Probably no religious body in America is more co-operative locally and nationally and, indeed, internationally than is our Evangelical and Reformed Church. At a public service of the General Synod Dr. Henry Smith Leiper, American Secretary of the World Council of Churches, unfolded a vision of the Church universal, filling a Christ-centered world. Dr. Walter W. Van Kirk spoke of the great work the Federal Council of Churches, in which we have a very active part, is doing throughout our country. The General Synod voted to approve the formation of the National Council of Churches, which is planned to include the Council of Church Boards of Education, the Federal Council, the Foreign Missions Conference, the Home Missions Council, the International Council of Religious Education, the Missionary Education Movement, the United Council of Church Women and the United Stewardship Council.

The General Synod not only took note of our Church's past and present, but also faced its future as an organization. It received reports showing that almost all the Synods approved, many of them unanimously or nearly so, the "Procedure" for union with the Congregational Christian Churches. The highest governing bodies of the two denominations—our General Synod and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches—were in session during the same week. Fraternal delegates of our sister denomination met with and addressed our General Synod, and representatives of our Church met with and addressed the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches, convened at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

On almost the same day our General Synod voted by a very strong majority, and the Congregational Christian Churches voted unanimously, to approve of the holding, in 1946, of a three-day joint meeting of our General Synod and their General Council to discuss the plans for union. If favorable, each group will then follow its own procedure in taking the necessary steps for union.

Our Evangelical and Reformed Church will go forward under both old and new leadership. The President, Secretary and Treasurer will continue in service, their terms of office expiring in 1947. Dr. Richards, who was the first President of the united Church and its First Vice-President during the past six years, was elected President Emeritus. He will have membership, without vote, in the General Synod, the General Council and the Administrative Committee. Dr. John Lentz, of Collegeville, Pennsylvania, was elected First Vice-President to succeed Dr. Richards. Judge D. J. Snyder, Second Vice-President of the Church since our union in 1934, requested that he be not renominated. His faithful and devoted service was recognized in a resolution of sincere appreciation. Mr. Edward Dirks, a business man of Indianapolis, was elected Second Vice-President.

William E. Lampe,
Secretary.

PENSION PLAN FOR LAY WORKERS

The long contemplated adoption of a Retirement Income Program for the full-time Lay Workers of the Church became a reality on May 1, 1944, when, after several years of study and planning, the Retirement Annuity Plan was placed into operation. Thirteen agencies of the Church with upwards of one hundred enrollments became the charter supporters of the Plan. This number is being steadily increased.

The Retirement Income benefits are provided through a Group Annuity Contract issued by the Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut, and are purchased jointly by each worker as the employee and by the various agencies of the Evangelical and Reformed Church as the employers. Each member contributes 3% of his earnings, taken out at the source, and this is matched by an equal amount contributed by the employing agency. In this way an equity will be built up against the year of retirement commensurate with the earnings and the years of service.

Membership eligibility is extended to all full-time lay workers in the employ of local congregations, the offices and Boards of the Church, publishing houses, educational institutions, hospitals, orphanages and old folks' homes. New members may enroll at any time, the membership and salary deductions becoming effective on the first of the month following the enrollment. The normal retirement date is the first day of the month next following the 65th birthday of the member. Retirement Annuity payments commence on the normal retirement date and continue as long as the member lives. Any changes that should be made in the Plan will in no way effect the benefits already purchased by the member's and the Employer's contributions. Whether or not the member remains in the service of the Employer, the amount of the Retirement Annuity will be that purchased by both the member's and the Employer's contributions up to the time of discontinuance.

The Aetna Life Insurance Company insures the benefits that will accrue under the Plan. All routine transactions except the payment of benefits to the employees or their beneficiaries will be conducted through the Board of Pensions and Relief of the Church. The various features, provisions, benefits and options are set forth in a Plain Booklet, which, together with the enrollment card and copy of the agency director's report, may be had by addressing Dr. Silas P. Bittner, Board of Pensions and Relief, Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania.

THE SAINTS' TRIUMPH

"For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus, our Lord."

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge will give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

Our New Executives

REF. FREDERICK A. GOETSCH, D.D., Litt.D.

The Board of International Missions announced the election of Dr. Goetsch as the Executive Secretary in charge of its entire work immediately following the meeting of the Board held at Toledo, Ohio, in May, 1944. Quite incidentally but appropriately, his election took place in the city where years before he had served as the pastor of St. Paul's Church.

Since 1940 Dr. Goetsch has been the co-executive secretary of the Board of International Missions along with Dr. Arthur V. Casselman, with special responsibility for the board's work in India and Honduras, while Dr. Casselman's responsibility was the work in China, Iraq and Japan.

For many years he served as the Executive Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Evangelical Synod of North America, previous to which tenure he spent eighteen years in India as a missionary of the Evangelical Synod. In 1935 and 1936 he visited mission fields in India, Africa, China and Japan. In 1938 he was an official delegate to the meeting of the International Missionary Council at Madras, India, in connection with which trip he visited our mission fields in India, Japan and Latin America. He has therefore had first-hand contact with the entire foreign missions enterprise of the Church. Here at home he has been active in the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, having served in many important capacities.

Dr. and Mrs. Goetsch have moved their residence from St. Louis to Philadelphia, where the executive office is located in the Schaff Building, 1505 Race Street. He has the confidence, well-wishings and earnest prayers of the entire Church in the midst of his stern duties during these exacting times.

Our New Executives

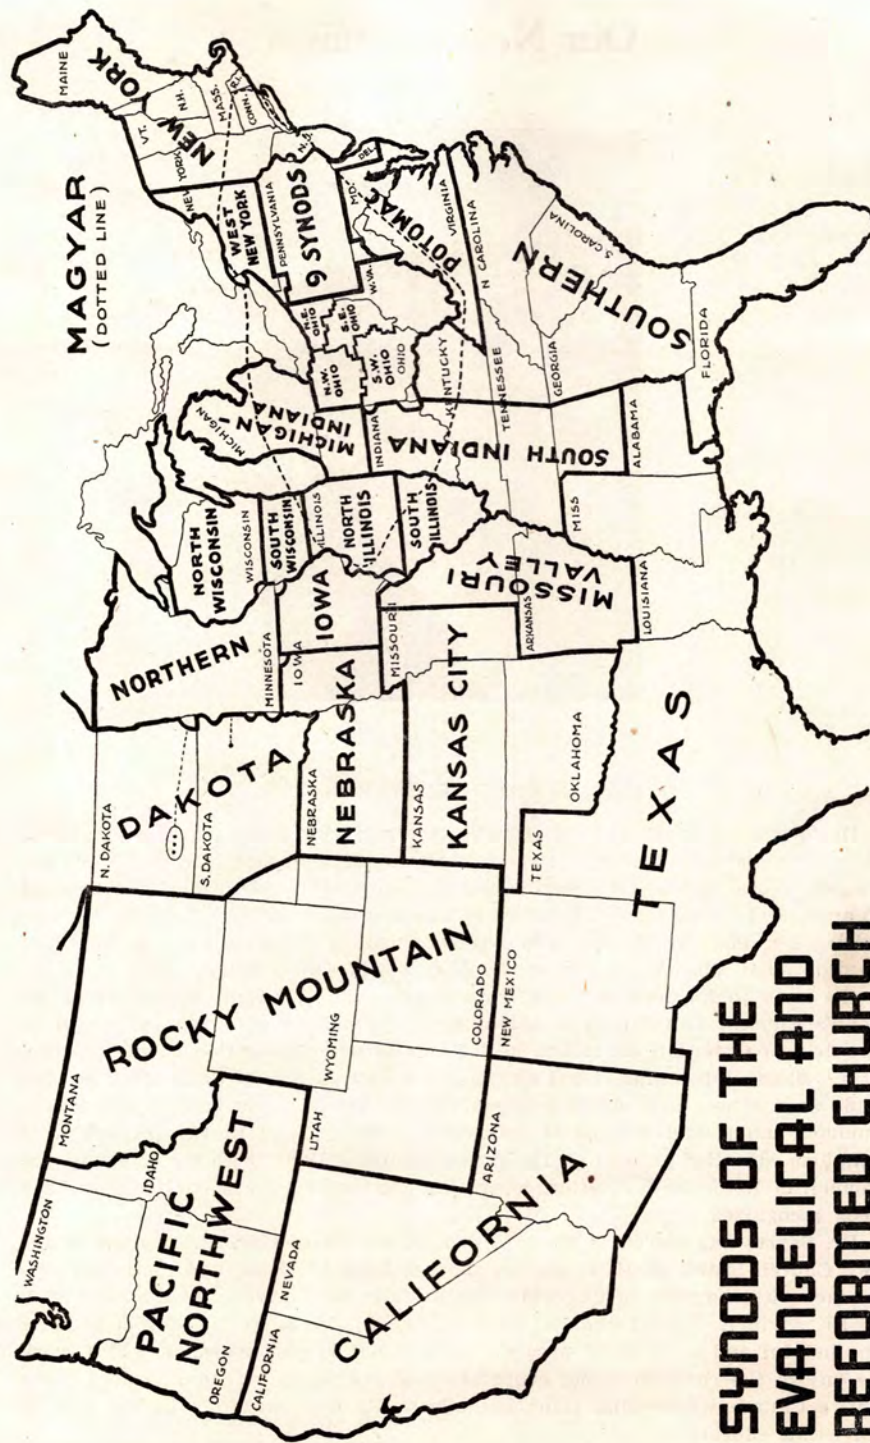

REV. ALFRED N. SAYRES, D.D.

Dr. Sayres was elected to the executive secretaryship of the Board of Christian Education and Publication at a special meeting of the board held at Pittsburgh, Pa., on Feb. 3, 1944. His election was subsequently confirmed by the General Council, and he assumed the duties of his new office on May 1, 1944. He succeeded Dr. Paul V. Taylor, who has returned to China under the Board of International Missions as one of the directors of China Relief, Inc.

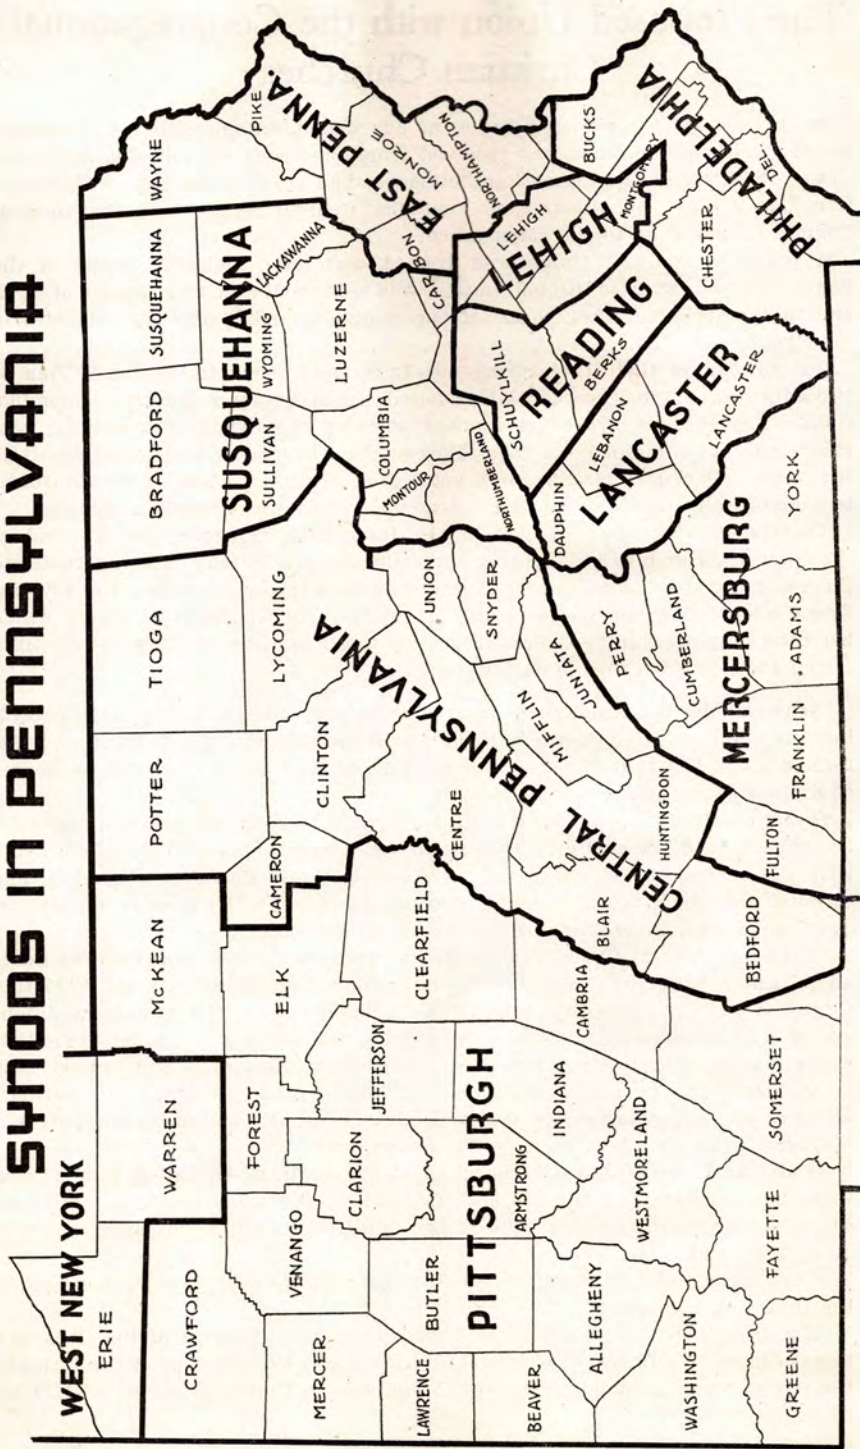

He came to his new position from a pastorate of twenty-one years at St. John's Church, Lansdale, Pennsylvania. Always interested and successful in the field of Christian education, he led this large congregation in the erection of a well-appointed educational unit, and his Church School was known far and wide as a strong and effective organization. He has also been active in the summer camps and schools of leadership training, and in the promotion of religious education generally. He has cooperated actively with the International Council of Religious Education, where his outstanding executive qualities have been recognized.

Dr. Sayres has served as the president of the board since the merger of the two Church bodies in 1934, and no one has been in closer and more intimate contact with the work of Christian Education in the Church. In the succession to Dr. Alvin R. Keppel and Dr. Paul V. Taylor, Dr. Sayres is ably continuing the helpful and many-sided program carried out by the board, in which work he enjoys the confidence and cooperation of a staff of splendid leaders. The entire Church wishes him rich blessings as its new executive in the field of Christian education.

SYNODS IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Proposed Union with the Congregational Christian Churches

An invitation to consider a union of our denomination with the Congregational Christian Churches was received from that body by our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches more than three years ago. "Conversations" followed. Our Committee kept the General Synod and the General Council informed as to the steps taken.

A proposed Basis of Union was drafted, and later revised. Copies of the Basis of Union, with additional matter, was sent in March and August of 1943, and in the spring of 1944, to all of our ministers and to the lay delegates to the Synods.

Our Synods, at their 1944 spring meetings, were asked to vote on a Plan of Procedure with reference to the proposed union between the two denominations. The Plan of Procedure reached some of the Synods too late for consideration, but a majority of them did consider the matter and made report to the General Synod. This was not a vote for or against a union of the Churches, but simply an expression of the sentiment within the respective Synods.

The General Synod at its meeting in June, 1944, expressed its approval of the Plan of Procedure by adopting the following resolution: "Having reviewed the report of the Committee on Closer Relations of the Churches, the General Synod adopts the Plan of Procedure as set forth in the Basis of Union which has been submitted to the General Synod by the Committee on Closer Relations."

The Plan of Procedure is as follows:

"Whereas the General Synod regards it as prerequisite to any vote regarding the union of the Congregational Christian and the Evangelical and Reformed Churches that the two communions should enjoy the highest degree of mutual acquaintance.

"Be it resolved that all congregations, Synods, Boards and national agencies be asked during the coming biennium to seek every opportunity for fellowship with the corresponding groups of the Congregational Christian Churches, and to enter into such types of cooperative endeavor as will engender mutual acquaintance without calling for constitutional changes;

"That the General Synod declare its willingness through the General Council to unite with the Executive Committee of the Congregational Christian Churches (1) in promoting fellowship in areas where the two communions are both well represented, (2) in organizing the sending of leaders of either denomination into areas where the other denomination is not numerically strong, and (3) in aiding the congregations, Synods, Boards, and national agencies in such types of cooperative endeavor as will neither presuppose nor prejudice ultimate union between the denominations.

"That the General Synod declares its willingness to be called into a joint three-day session with the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches for a general discussion of the implications of the proposed union in June, 1946, and

"That immediately thereafter the General Synod meet to accept or reject the following resolution:

"Resolved, (a) That the General Synod approves the union of the Congregational Christian and the Evangelical and Reformed Churches upon the terms of the Basis of Union submitted by the Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches.

"(b) The General Synod directs its secretary to submit the Basis of Union to each of the Synods with the request that within twelve months they study it, discuss it, and finally approve or disapprove the union of the two denominations on the terms which the Basis of Union sets forth, and report the results of their vote to the General Council.

"(c) It is understood that if the vote of the Synods proves to be overwhelmingly in favor of the union, the General Council will call a meeting of the General Synod in June, 1947, to consummate the union; if the vote be overwhelmingly negative, the General Council will terminate the official conversations with the Congregational Christian Churches; and if the vote be ambiguous, the Council will await a further directive from the General Synod."

During the same week that our General Synod was in session the General Council (corresponding to our General Synod) of the Congregational Christian Churches met at Grand Rapids, Michigan. The latter unanimously approved the Procedure for union with our Church, but left to its Executive Committee the decision as to whether their final vote should be taken immediately after the joint meeting of the General Synod and the General Council in 1946, or later.

Copies of a pamphlet containing the Basis of Union and informative material upon the two denominations may be had upon application to the Secretary of the Church.

NEW LEADERSHIP PERSONNEL

REV. LEE J. GABLE assumed his new responsibilities as the Director of Leadership Training on September 1, 1944. He succeeded Rev. Theodore C. Braun, who had made such an outstanding contribution in the field of leadership training until he resigned to become a member of the staff of The Messenger with his office at St. Louis.

Following his collegiate course at Franklin & Marshall, his theological training at the Seminary at Lancaster, and graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania, where he received his Master's degree, Mr. Gable was for eight years the pastor of the Dallastown Charge in York County, Pa. For the past six years he has been the director of leadership training for the Pennsylvania State Council of Religious Education, in connection with which he also carried partial responsibility for week-day religious education. He has also served as the chairman of the Leadership Education Advisory Section of the International Council of Religious Education.

Denominationally, Mr. Gable has maintained a lively interest in the educational program of our Church, and from his State office in the Schaff Building has kept in close contact with the work and workers. He has had a part in the conduct of our camps and summer schools for the past twelve years, and is, therefore, no stranger to many of our pastors and their young people.

REV. RALPH S. WEILER, D.D., has been added to the staff of the Department of United Promotion as the new field secretary for the eastern area of the Church.

Dr. Weiler has had notable pastorates at Allentown and Jeannette, Pa., in the very heart of the area which is to be his special responsibility. He has also been a member of the Board of Business Management and chairman of the board's Committee on The Messenger. His office is located on the tenth floor of the Schaff Building at Philadelphia. The other members of the staff of the Department of United Promotion are Dr. J. N. LeVan, Director, and Rev. Carl W. Klein, the western field secretary with offices at St. Louis.

The Church and Its Chaplains

Studied and reliable estimates indicate that the equivalent of one out of every five male members of our Church is at present enlisted in one branch or other of military service. The proportion of our members in the service is actually larger than this because of the number of young women who have also volunteered. It is safe to say that every one of our congregations is represented in the personnel of our armed forces to some extent.

The ministering to the moral and spiritual needs of these young men and women is a privilege and responsibility to which the Church has addressed itself zealously and efficiently. Along with other communions, we have been proceeding upon the basis of chaplain requirements and qualifications which the State has set for the various denominations, and since the inception of the war about one hundred of our ministers have volunteered for this worthwhile service.

DR. CALVIN H. WINGERT

REV. HENRY C. KOCH

Several of these are veterans of the first World War. Two have died in service, one has been officially reported missing, while others have been honorably discharged, with the result that we have eighty-five chaplains in active service as of October 1, 1944.

The Church at home is keenly interested in the work of its chaplains. The Committee on Chaplains, of which Rev. Calvin H. Wingert, D.D., of Washington, D. C., is the chairman, receives and acts upon all applications coming from our ministers who volunteer for this service. The Committee thus comes into direct contact with all chaplains from the very beginning, and in various ways maintains its interest in them thereafter.

The Bureau for Men in Service, jointly established by the Committee on Chaplains of the Church and the Christian Committee for Camp Communities, employs a full-time Director in the person of Rev. Henry C. Koch, with offices in Louisville, Ky., who with his associates is doing everything possible in the name of the Church by way of correlating its own program with that of the Committee on Chaplains, thus ministering to the men and women in service in ways that are at once helpful and wholesome. Among other things, the Bureau has been instrumental in stocking prayer books of various kinds not obtainable through our book rooms; providing quantity subscriptions to The Messenger and Youth for distribution in chapels and reading rooms; furnishing field communion sets, transcription records, and in several instances baptismal fonts and private communion sets. All of this equipment helps the chaplains directly in their work.

The booklet, "I Believe," published by the Bureau and containing ninety-two meditations upon the articles of the Apostles' Creed written by twenty-two of our leading Church-men, has had a wide distribution and has been well received. A request for German hymnals and other literature has recently come from chaplains who are able to minister in the German language to war prisoners in camps where these are interned.

Appended is the official list of chaplains furnished by the Committee on Chaplains and corrected to October 1, 1944. Action upon a number of additional applications is pending. The list includes the two who died in service and the one who was reported missing, but does not include those who for some reason or other have been released from service.

The following interesting excerpts clipped from letters received from chaplains give an insight into the many-sidedness of their activities and experiences. These letters were written without any fore-knowledge on the part of the chaplains that they were to be used in this connection.

"I have been overseas 14 months and in New Guinea 12½, but it has not seemed like a long time to me. The time has passed quickly since I have found much joy and pleasure in my work over here. This is indeed a fruitful field for Christian service. There is nothing unusual or extraordinary about my work, being about the same as that of any hospital chaplain."

Chaplain Robert J. Baldauf

"You ask what changes the church must make if it is to receive the loyalty of returning soldiers. Men are seeking honesty, truth, and fair-play. The church to receive the loyalty of men must be loyal herself. The minister is all-important. He can win the returning soldier by his genuine interest and example—they must be genuine. There is a small percentage of soldiers who are interested in a religion that emphasizes the emotional side of worship, but the majority of men want a sane, practical religion."

Chaplain C. F. Straub

"If the Church is planning to build a program to meet the needs of the 'boys' who left the Church to go into service it will find that it is not the 'boys' it knew who are coming back. These boys are coming back mature and changed men and I hope the church will realize that in its postwar plans. I would say that 90 per cent of the men I have met have no use for the Church, partly thru ignorance and partly thru prejudice and indifference, but most of them are susceptible to religion."

Chaplain Victor T. Kissel

"I am in the Air Force, and it is a common thing to hear remarks like this: 'Everyone prays when you get 'up there,' and everyone does a lot of serious thinking.' One of the chaplains told me how he and the Catholic Chaplain with him are always called upon to give a prayer before the planes leave on a mission. The men just won't go unless the Chaplains are there to see them off. Hundreds of like stories could be told, and it does give one a lot of personal satisfaction to know that he is giving comfort and spiritual aid to those men who are risking their lives daily."

Chaplain Verne H. Warner

"Critical chaplains are hoping that the churches will not be too much impressed by the statistical reports which indicate a renaissance of religion in the army. Bell's article, Before the Men Come Home, is an honest report of the actual progress that has been made. Individuals in the army, just the same as civilians, have discovered the need of religion. But the masses, here as well as at home, are still untouched. The one value of the Chaplain's Corps has been that it has preserved a symbol to the men, has kept them uneasy in regard to war for its own sake and has tended to preserve in them restraints in regard to the excesses of war. This is important but it is important more for the preservation of human values of decency than for the advancement of the Protestant faith."

Chaplain Fred J. Denbeaux

"The work of a Chaplain in this area of the South Pacific is both varied and interesting. Perhaps for the first time in our lives, we are becoming acquainted with the real meaning of the word, 'sacrifice.' Physical comforts are few and far between. We now know what it is, 'to do without.' We are learning that it is possible to get along despite the absence of conveniences and luxuries, which here-to-fore we regarded as necessities."

Chaplain Lester A. Ehret

"On the evening before D Day I had announced a short worship service in the bow of the ship. . . . It was just a few minutes spent together as the sun set on the eve of D Day. Before dawn the beaches lay ahead. What they meant for us we had yet to find out. But our few minutes were precious. We had been near to God, and His Grace had come to us anew. We were all more ready for whatever the hours just before dawn might bring."

Chaplain George E. Gaiser

"This morning I received the copy of the letter to the churches "Before the Men March Home" by Bell. I think I have never read a more fitting message to the churches than this one by Bell. Seeing life in the rough, and from thousands of criticisms by soldiers about the various churches, such a program instituted by Bell is most appropriate at this time. We Chaplains know the very heart-beat of the feelings of these men. It is a question of launching out from our old established policy of ruin, and all may as well get that straight right now. Sincerity and sympathy is our need in our beloved church."

Chaplain Harvey T. Goodling

"When I wrote to you some months ago we were on our way to the invasion of Guam, a beautiful little island but at that time most unfriendly. I went in with my Regiment but only stayed for three days. The Japanese dropped a mortar shell among some of us as we were moving bodies of dead Marines. I was wounded in the right shoulder and slightly on the left foot. So that ended my stay in Guam. I was evacuated to Honolulu and from there, after a ten day hospital visit, back to the good old U.S.A."

Chaplain Merritt J. Jeffers

"My work is going very well. I find even the preaching ministry a lovable part of the work. I had an audience of 2000 this past Sunday, preaching in a Drill Hall and without use of a microphone. It is quite a challenge. We do our best to rise up to it. The pastoral work, however, is my choice. The Field Communion Set and the Private Communion Set are finding plenty of use. I am very grateful for your help."

Chaplain H. F. Yearick

"The men have taken great pride in building our Chapel—it is cruciform with only a roof, no walls excepting behind the altar. The altar and lecturn are made of teak wood as well as the communion rail. We are located in a coconut grove, the trees lining the sides of the Chapel, and just about head-level there are orchids growing on the tree trunks. The Chapel accommodates about 150 men and is well filled every Sunday. The Officers in command cooperate very well and although services are held during work hours (we have a seven day week) no man can be detained from any service.

Chaplain George H. Kalbfleisch

"I have never said much to you in my letters about one feature of life with which I have come into contact here in North Africa. Every town or city in which I have made acquaintances thus far has at least one French Protestant Reformed Church. I have tried to make friends with the ministers in all of them. Thru the ministers I have met some of the finest and most loyal members of the congregations. I admire the courage with which these people face their task. They are loyal followers of the Christ and determined that their Church shall not be found napping when this old war is over."

Chaplain Ira Wilson Frantz

"We are living in a tent camp without any of the modern conveniences that were available in Boston. A warrant officer, American Red Cross Field Director, Catholic Chaplain, and myself live in a small tent and sleep on army cots. Our Chapel is nothing more than another rude tent with a homemade altar and homemade benches. The chapel is in the center of camp and about a mile and a half from our living quarters. While this life has many disadvantages, it also has its advantages for we get to know both our officers and men personally. Thus far I have been out on two bivouacs with the men and in the near future we will be doing some landing practices."

Chaplain G. E. Baumann

"Just a few lines to inform you that I reached France safely and like it here very much. It reminds me very much of England. My work keeps me quite busy and the men are most responsive to religious services. Am getting sufficient food to eat, but a good steak would be very acceptable, as well as some fresh vegetables. Guess such things will be coming through soon. Can dig slit trenches and fox-holes in zero flat. Am feeling fine. Best wishes to all."

Chaplain William H. Groff

"Thanks for your recent letter. I agree with the comment made by Chaplains Baldauf and Jungfer. Our men do possess the attitude that when the war is over they can wallow in the peace. We Chaplains must prepare them for aiding us in creating a world that is fit for the Prince of Peace to dwell in. The Church at home must be prepared to cope with the attitude and to chart the course over the stormy seas which inevitably lie before us."

Chaplain C. F. Straub

"In conclusion, we Chaplains are deeply appreciative of the whole-hearted cooperation we have received from our church. Your prayers, your willingness to make available the tools for worship, and your encouraging letters are making a difficult task easier. Your investment in our cause will be repaid many times over, by the return of better Christian men and, I trust, more effective ministers of the Gospel."

Chaplain Lester A. Ehret

FORMS FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies, especially with reference to the time that must elapse between the date of the will and the death of the testator. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. Where several Boards or institutions are to be remembered, a separate paragraph beginning, "I give and bequeath," etc., should be made for each one. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is had this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the Board, institution or agency to be remembered. A list of the educational institutions, orphanages, hospitals and old folks' homes is given on pages 54 and 55 of this Year Book, and the official titles of the administrative bodies are given on pages 24 to 28. The pastor should be consulted for information upon any cause or agency not so listed.

All wills should be attested by the legally required number of witnesses—usually two but sometimes three—who should write their places of residence, including street and number, opposite their names. The following form of attestation will suffice for every state in the Union:—

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said (name of testator) as his (or her) last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at the request of the said (name of testator), and in his (or her) presence, and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses."

Specific Bequests

The following forms are suggested for bequests to specific Church Boards or institutions, subject to the consideration and confirmation of counsel:—

For the Boards of the Church

"I give and bequeath to (here insert the official title of the Board or agency) located in (here insert its headquarters) and its successors, the sum of Dollars."

For the Theological Seminaries

"I give and bequeath to the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, (or, to the Board of Directors of the Eden Theological Seminary, Webster Groves, Missouri; or, to the Board of Trustees of the Mission House, Plymouth, Wisconsin); and their successors, the sum of Dollars, to be used for the benefit of the said Seminary as they shall deem most advisable."

For the Colleges and Academies

"I give and bequeath to the (here insert the title of the administrative body, the name and location of the institution to be remembered) and their successors, the sum of Dollars, to be used for the benefit of said college (or academy) as they shall deem most expedient."

The same form and procedure are suggested for specific bequests to the Orphans' Homes, the Hospitals, the Homes for the Aged, the Auxiliary Organizations, and other Kingdom causes of the Church. The necessary information upon all of these causes will be found in this volume of the Year Book, or may be secured from the Officers of the Church.

QUADRENNIAL CONVENTION OF WOMEN'S GUILD

The first Quadrennial Convention of the Women's Guild will be held at Philadelphia, Pa., on June 6, 7 and 8, 1945. The Executive Committee at its headquarters in Cleveland, the Convention Program Committee, and a closely knit organization of committees in the host city are collaborating enthusiastically in assembling a rich program and a strategy designed for these troubled times in interpreting the will of God for "the home, the local church, the denomination, the community, the nation and the world."

The opening session will be held on Thursday afternoon, June 6, 1945. The members of the Convention Program Committee are Mrs. Melvin E. Beck, Canton, Ohio, chairman; Mrs. Hugo Schuessler, Evansville, Indiana, president of the Women's Guild, ex officio; Mrs. Allen G. Wehrli, Webster Groves, Missouri; Mrs. William C. Treston, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Miss Florence A. Partridge, Cleveland, Ohio, executive secretary.

The voting body of the Convention shall consist of: (1) the Board of Directors; (2) the president and one delegate from each Synodical Women's Guild; (3) the president and one delegate from each Regional Women's Guild, and from regions with more than 1,000 active members another delegate for every 500 additional active members; (4) one member of the Girls' Guild elected by each Regional Women's Guild; (5) Life Members in the former Women's Missionary Society of the General Synod and the former Evangelical Union, as of October 1, 1941.

Credential cards must be signed in duplicate by the president and secretary of the sponsoring Synodical or Regional Women's Guild. One copy must be in the office of the Women's Guild, 2969 W. 25th St., Cleveland 13, Ohio, by May 1, 1945. The duplicate credential card shall be presented by the delegate at the registration desk of the Convention for badge, handbook and packet.

The traveling expenses of all delegates, other than life members who will defray their own, shall be equalized and prorated by the committee on equalization. Each Regional and Synodical Women's Guild shall be prepared to pay its portion of the equalization at the time when representatives present their credentials at the Quadrennial Meeting. All hotel reservations shall be made by the individual delegates direct according to arrangements to be announced by the proper committee of the host city.

The members of the Executive Committee are: Mrs. Hugo Schuessler, president; Mrs. William J. Halfter, secretary; Miss Mathilde Berg, treasurer; Mrs. Jesse M. Mengel, first vice-president, and Mrs. Melvin E. Beck, member of the Board of Directors, elected by the General Synod.

NAMES AND STATIONS OF MISSIONARIES of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The names in italics after the post-office addresses of lay missionaries represent the stations at which they are ministering. These names are not part of the post office addresses. The post office addresses of ordained missionaries (and of their wives) will be found in the Register of Ministers, pages 64 to 93.

THE WOMEN'S GUILD

The purpose of The Women's Guild of the Evangelical and Reformed Church is "to unite all the women of the Church in Christian fellowship; and, with divine help and guidance, to develop an understanding of the work of the entire Church, deepen the spiritual life, stimulate sacrificial giving, and promote Christian service in the home, the local church, the denomination, the community, the nation and the world."

1943 statistics: Number of Local Women's Guilds, 2,085; number of Regional Women's Guilds, 108; number of Synodical Women's Guilds, 28. Amount of Challenge, $78,000.00. Thank offering, $89,000.00.

NEW LEADERSHIP PERSONNEL

REV. ROBERT D. BRODT, of Eureka, Kansas, has been elected by the Board of Christian Education and Publication to succeed Dr. Fred R. Wentzel as the Director of Youth Work.

A native of Erie, Pa., and reared in a parsonage, Mr. Brodt has spent most of his life in the Middle West. His under-graduate education was received at the University of Illinois whose A.B. degree he earned in 1938. In 1941 he was graduated a Bachelor of Divinity from the Chicago Theological Seminary. Following an assistant pastorate in Chicago, he served as the pastor of our St. Paul's Church at Franklin Park, Illinois, from 1939 to 1943. Since April, 1943, he served the First Congregational Church at Eureka, Kansas.

He has been continuously interested in the Youth Fellowship Program of our Church, and more recently in the Pilgrim Fellowship Summer Camp program of the Congregational Christian Churches. He assumed his new duties in November of this year, with his office on the second floor of the Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. GEORGE ORLOWSKY has succeeded Rev. J. Abele as the superintendent of the Pastors' Home at Blue Springs, Missouri, having assumed his new duties on October 1, 1944. In addition to having served churches throughout the Missouri Valley and Kansas City Synods, he was for many years a member of the board of directors of the Emmaus Homes, and is well qualified for his new position.

REV. FRED R. WENTZEL, D.D., whose name for many years has been synonymous with the entire religious educational program of the Church, has been elevated to the position of Director of Publications by the Board of Christian Education and Publication. He assumed his new duties upon the coming of Rev. Robert D. Brodt, who succeeded him as the Director of Youth Work. Dr. Wentzel's office continues on the second floor of the Schaff Building, at Philadelphia, Pa.

These statistics are furnished by national officers of religious bodies members of the United Stewardship Council. Budget Benevolence includes contributions to the missionary budgets of the reporting bodies. Dispositional Benevolence includes gifts to any benevolence in the denomination whether or not it is included in the national denominational budget. The totals for each benevolence column and for Congregational Expenses is larger than for the preceding year.

REGISTER OF MINISTERS

As of October 1, 1944

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination (or licensure, if not ordained) of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It contains, as nearly as possible, all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

THE PRESIDENTS of the Thirty-four Synods

Thirty-three of the thirty-four presidents of the synods, whose likenesses are here shown, are in the active pastorate. The thirty-fourth was retired in 1943 after almost half a century of service in the pastoral relation. One of the presidents is administering the work of one of our most widely scattered and the only "international" synod from his headquarters in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

The combined pastoral service of the thirty-four presidents totals 876 years, or an average of 26 years—mute evidence that the Church regards experience as one of the prerequisites of leadership in this important phase of Kingdom building to which these ministers are dedicating their lives under God. Their complete addresses will be found in the Register of Ministers, and the Rosters of the Synods will indicate the extent of their jurisdiction.

IN MEMORIAM
OCTOBER 6, 1944

Rosters of the Synods

These Rosters are furnished by the Secretary of the Church, Dr. William E. Lampe, and have been corrected to September 30, 1944. Except for the latest changes, they have been approved by the presidents of the Synods. All changes of address or in the records of ministers and congregations must be sent to the Secretary of the Church (By-Laws, Sec. 87f).

LOCATIONS OF CHURCHES

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and Saint John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

Statistical Tables of the Congregations for the Year Ending December 31, 1941

THE statistics of the congregations by synods contained in the following pages are those reported to the office of the Secretary of the Church by the pastors or by other proper officials in the local congregations. The name of the pastor is that of the incumbent in September, 1944, and is not always that of the individual who prepared the report. Changes in pastorates officially reported to the office of the Secretary as late as September 30, 1944, have been included, and every effort was made up to the time of going to press to present an accurate and complete personnel in every instance.

One hundred and two congregations failed to report for 1944. These consist in greater part of vacant or supplied congregations, or of churches that have been closed and where services are no longer being held. This difficulty has been accentuated because of the number of pastors who have entered the chaplaincy. The congregations not reporting are designated by the symbol #, and the statistics that are used are those of a former year.

Congregations designated by an asterisk (*) are affiliated, and are not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

For all intents and purposes, the figures hereinafter contained form the basis of, and are, the official statistics of the Church.

Jesus Said: "My Peace I Give Unto You"

One of "Our Boys"

Post-War Planning for this Peace is the order of the day, and

YOU ARE ONE OF THE PLANNERS.

You ask how? Here is the answer.

In your heart you are planning to give some boy now in the Armed Forces

His HOME—

His JOB—

His HEALTH—

His SECURITY—

BUT

Have YOU planned to help a HOMELESS CHILD? Many boys will not come home from this war—and many will be unable to care for their loved ones. So—will you and I do this job for them? Indeed we will! Our Home has many little ones and is ready to receive many more.

Give to our TRUST FUND and you will provide

The Baby's HOME—

Baby's HEALTH—

Baby's FOOD—

Baby's EDUCATION—

Baby's SECURITY—

and return to the world in due time a worthwhile man or woman.

GIVE in your own name, in memory of a loved one, or in the form of an annuity, BUT GIVE!

One of Our Babies

Our Indian Evangelist John Stacy

Winnebago Indian Mission and School

The only American Indian mission of the E & R Church. Sixty-six years of missionary service—evangelistic, educational, medical and social; a Christian enterprise that has profoundly influenced the life of an entire tribe.

The work of the Old Mission at Black River Falls and of the Mission Boarding School at Neillsville conducted under our Board of National Missions; supported entirely by church contributions.

A blessed opportunity for individuals and church organizations to assist in interesting ways. For information write to: Winnebago Indian Mission, Rev. Benj. Stucki, Neillsville, Wis.

To make each
Möller organ a little better than the one before

★ It takes time to produce a craftsman...and real craftsmen to build The Artist of Organs.

★ The name Möller is a synonym for the highest in pipe organ achievement. Möller craftsmen have earned their name...through mastery of their particular skills...through pride in their work...through adherence to the ideal of surpassing past accomplishments.

★ When Victory has been achieved, the Möller skills being used for War will again produce the world's finest organs.

CHURCH HOME

1817 Virginia Avenue

Hagerstown, Md.

"For People Old and Feeble"

This Home, one of the youngest of the Church, was incorporated September 22, 1930. It can accommodate fifteen guests. A long waiting list consists of many of our most loyal and faithful members of the Church.

Because they are old and feeble they are not wanted. Many must live in neglect. Their lives are just as good and precious in the sight of God as others.

We lack proper equipment and room. Will some one help us enlarge our present building and equip it for larger and better service?

Rev. W. R. Hartzell, Supt.

The George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage

R. F. D. No. 1, Littlestown, Pa.

Rev. Arthur Leeming, Supt.

Hoffman's one hundred and ninety-two acres are located in the scenic-historic surroundings of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Its cottage plan of housing and unique equipment are designed to provide adequate Christian home care and practical training for dependent Church-related boys and girls of Mercersburg, and portions of Potomac and Central Pennsylvania Synods. The economic security and physical stability that Hoffman Home enjoys are due to the thoughtfulness of many friends expressed in various VOLUNTARY contributions.

Evangelical Home for Orphans and Old People

West Grand Boulevard, Detroit Michigan

Our orphans' and old people's home is situated in one of the most beautiful sections of Detroit. We cordially welcome Evangelical and Reformed people who may come to Detroit to visit our institution. A Grand River car to West Grand Blvd. will bring them right to the home. . . . The home is under control of the Michigan-Indiana Synod of our Evangelical and Reformed Church and is dependent upon friends within our Church for its support. . . . Our Home is able to accommodate 125 children and 60 old people. To meet our daily requirement is quite a problem at this time, as the conduct of our institution is dependent more than ever before upon the generosity of our friends in the Church. . . . We cordially solicit your interest and express our gratitude to the many friends who have heretofore supported us. . . . Bequests must be made in favor of "Evangelical Home for Orphans and Old People, Detroit, Mich." Other contributions will be gratefully received by the superintendent, Rev. F. Lueckhoff, 1852 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Phone: Tyler 5-8800.

Bethany Orphans' Home

WOMELSDORF, PENNSYLVANIA
Rev. R. S. Vandevere, Superintendent

Bethany children are happy and contented. Contentment follows perfect coordination of child aspirations and Managers' sympathetic understanding.

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

The Rev. A. J. Munsterman, Supt.

Serving the total needs of CHILDREN—providing both institutional and foster home care for them under the Christian leadership of a capable and sympathetic staff. Our two-fold program includes also Christian care of the Church-related AGED.

The Home is licensed by the State, and the program indorsed by authorities in the field of Social Welfare.

As we face the next fifty years of service, we will need the loyal support of Churches and friends. Your influence can live on in others through bequests and special memorial gifts. Information gladly furnished.

BENSENVILLE IS "CHRISTIAN FAITH IN ACTION"

Keeping in Touch with Friends

These can walk
—But they need guides and companions.

On the Marthasville and St. Charles farms, which are communities of their own, buildings and equipment provide a home for about 250 permanently handicapped human beings. Not all of them can walk. Some are very helpless, needing much personal care. For them there is fellowship, entertainment, recreation. They worship the Lord at morning and evening devotionals, and in Sunday services.

But the work is suffering for lack of attendants. These workers at Emmaus must come from the rank and file of our Church. For more information on this kind of Christian service to the least among the brethren of the Christ, write to the superintendent of either of the two locations.

THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Lancaster, Pennsylvania

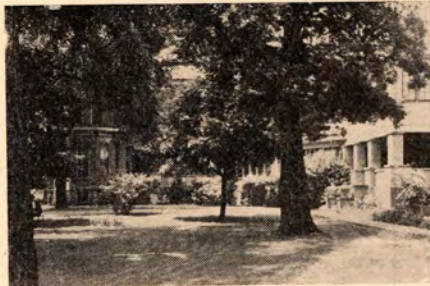

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, was founded 1825. Its present Faculty consists of six Professors, two Instructors, and a Librarian. The Swander and the McCauley Lectures provide two annual courses of lectures.

For the duration the Seminary has accelerated its work, dividing the scholastic year into three sessions, beginning, respectively, July 1, November 1, and March 1. In addition to the required work in the six departments, courses are offered in Christian Education, the social aspects of Christianity, Rural Church Problems, History and Theory of Missions, History and Comparative Study of Religions, and Church Music. Required and elective courses leading to the degree of B.D. Daily worship conducted in chapel with pipe organ under the direction of a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists.

No charge for tuition. Rooms and board in new dormitory and refectory at moderate rates.

"Treaty of Lancaster"—In 1762 the Governor of Pennsylvania arranged a treaty with the Indians at Lancaster to effect the release of missionaries held prisoners. The Fund sent representatives "with an order for five hundred pounds" to be paid the Indians upon return of the prisoners. The Treaty of Lancaster is symbolic of the services rendered clergymen for more than two centuries by the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund.

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS was a sizable sum in 1762. Now, in the Fund's 227th year of service to ministers, their wives and theological students, it is less than the average amount of protection carried by the Fund's policyholders.

MUTUAL
Fire & Storm Insurance Association
Burlington, Iowa

Organized 1882 - Incorporated 1921

An Insurance Organization for Evangelical and Reformed folks. Organized to serve only Evangelical and Reformed Churches, Hospitals, Orphanages, Seminaries, Colleges, Pastors and their Widows, Missionaries, Commissioned Lay Workers. It also writes insurance for the members in the congregation, but does not write mercantile buildings nor stocks of merchandise owned by the members in the congregation.

Insurance carried in our Association has many advantages over other insurance. All of our policies are written for a six year term on an annual premium basis. This plan not only makes it easier to pay the premium but has other advantages as well. There is no carrying charge to be paid.

The Pastors' Household Goods and Personal Effects are always insured, except while in transit from one point to another. There is no advance in rate or premium while in storage. Items of clothing, books, furniture and such items as the pastor may have in the office of the Church are automatically covered under the policy and need not be specifically endorsed on the policy.

Our policies cover for Fire, Lightning, Tornado, Cyclone, Highwinds, and Hail. We also write Extended Coverage when we have the assurance that all policies covering the same risk have the Extended Coverage attached and that the amount for Extended Coverage on the policy is the same as for Fire and Lightning.

Our policies permit other insurance.

It will pay all Congregations, Institutions, and Pastors of the Evangelical and Reformed Church to investigate our Insurance.

INSURANCE IS IMPORTANT. HAVE YOU CHECKED YOUR COVERAGES RECENTLY?

We invite inquiries.
